Before your paper can be published, it is necessary for you to signify your intent to pay page charges. These are computed as follows:

- Voluntary page charges are currently $110 per page for the first seven pages.
- Mandatory page charges are for papers that are in excess of seven pages: $185 per page for papers having at least one MTT-S member and $230 per page if no author is an MTT-S member. The mandatory page charge fee must be paid, or the paper must be reduced to seven or fewer journal pages.

This form must be returned to the Editor's assistant with your submission to avoid any unnecessary delays in the final processing of your manuscript. The final page charges that will be assessed will be determined by the actual number of pages which are published in the IEEE MTT Transactions.
